UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Clifford Schuett,

Plaintiff

v.

Kohen, et al.,

Defendants

Case No. 2:19-cv-01042-JAD-EJY

Order Re: IFP Application

[ECF Nos. 4, 5]

Pro se plaintiff Clifford Schuett filed this Bivens action while incarcerated in a Federal Correctional Institution, and he submitted an application to proceed in forma pauperis. But because his incarcerated status required him to provide an inmate account statement with that application, the court denied his application without prejudice to his ability to file a new application with complete financial attachments.<sup>1</sup> Schuett responded to that order by filing motions asking the court to direct the Bureau of Prisons to provide his account history necessary to complete his application.<sup>2</sup> But Schuett has since been released from custody and is no longer an inmate,<sup>3</sup> and the application requirements for non-inmates is different than for inmates. Accordingly, I will deny Schuett's current applications and motions and direct him to file the IFP application for a non-inmate by January 24, 2020.
